

Introduce new products on the market in new section of the Czech Vacuum Society Bulletin.

There is new possibility to detail Your new product directly to the users of vacuum equipment in the Czech Republic. Czech Vacuum Society Bulletin is issued 2 times a year and directly mailed to the members of the society. All members are active users of vacuum products.

The new section „New Products on the Market“ will collect articles comprehensively introducing new products of the companies. The article can be published separately free of charge. The free article will be up to two pages incl. two pictures or schemes in grey scale.

You can focus readers to your product by ordering the „Product Package“. The package consist of a full-colour advertisement on the cover or in the bulletin and detailed article describing advantages, technical data, accessories, etc. Full-colour pictures, schemes and logotypes can be published in the article. There are three options for advertisement to place to. First page of the cover, last page of the cover and the other pages in the bulletin.
